

Properties and Functions of the Evolution Charm

The Design's Intention

The Evolution Charm opens up and accelerates your ability to work with the dynamics of resonance in an even, stable progression. The Charm also opens up your curiosity to learning and working with patterns of resonance that underlies all intentions, actions and form. Why is this important? Discovering, researching, building and applying a global knowledge base related to working with vibrational patterns and resonance is a key to transitioning the earth from dynamics of Piscean resonance into the dynamics of Aquarian resonance. Increased self-awareness always precedes conscious, productive changes. Part of this awareness comes through learning to be in touch with vibrational patterns and resonance.

The Design's Properties

The Evolution Charm contains five key properties that help you explore and gain insights about the energetic dynamics and influence of intention on resonance at the form or object level, the group level, and/or the societal level. Throughout the description of the Evolution Charm, the terms "vibration," "vibrational patterns" and "resonance" are used. Here's a brief analogy of the difference between vibration and resonance. Think of how we describe the weather: it's sunny, it's cloudy (there might even be a mention of the cloud type), it's breezy/windy, the temperature highs and lows for the day are such and so, etc. Each of these is a component of the weather, but by itself is not the weather itself. Each component of what comprises weather is analogous to recognizing each of the different vibrational components of an intention, action, person, form, group, place, or overall society, and so on. "Vibrational patterns" are the cycles of a particular vibrational component. This is analogous to specific conditions that create and disperse a specific type of cloud pattern (cirrus, cumulus, etc.). "Resonance" then, is analogous to the overall state of the "weather" at various times and with endless possible variations of conditions. Resonance is the comprised vibrational components of an intention, action, person, form, group, place, or overall society, etc., at a particular time during a particular cycle. Understanding resonance includes understanding how all possible vibrational components and patterns interact with and influence one-another in endless possible variations that create different energetic "weather" conditions.

Property-1:

Property-1 has two functions. It opens you up to learn, connect, and work with the distinct vibrations, vibrational patterns, and resonance of all intention, action and form. Property-1 enables, creates, and supports great synchronicity, ease, and efficiency in learning to work with all Evolution Charm's properties and underlying functions.

Functions:

- a. Amplifies and broadcasts the resonance of your actions to others and to other forms¹ (animate and inanimate).
- b. Makes you acutely more aware of and sensitive to other (people, culture, and forms') vibration and resonance.

Property-2:

Property-2 has four functions. It motivates you to more deeply explore the vibration, vibrational patterns, and resonance of things related to your specific journey and expansion process. No longer will scratching the surface of a concept or idea satisfy you. You'll dive beneath the surface to explore, examine, test and apply new information, tools, and resource to your life.

Functions:

- a. Releases your resistance and supports your ability to easily explore new concepts, tools, and resources.
- b. Diminishes the states of feeling overwhelmed that usually accompany "information overload" when absorbing new concepts and information. Leads you to deeply examine/research appropriate sources (info, people, resources, tools) with unwavering curiosity, objectivity, and without getting overwhelmed.
- c. Enables you to easily and objectively test and verify what things work for what you need, and easily move on if the information or tool is not what you need at the time. For the things that do resonate with you, you'll have the impetus to tweak, re-test, adjust, and add new tools, resources over time. This will unfold in a sequence that enables you to build/rebuild from your foundation up. In other words, you'll create new building blocks that support for your life during the shift from Piscean to Aquarian dynamics.
- d. This function helps you easily apply and integrate the new info/people/tools/resources into your daily routine and easily adjust things as your circumstances evolve.

¹ As an example, check out the books "Messages from Water," and "Secret Life of Plants". Both books present research on how our thoughts and actions influence the qualitative state of water and plants. If this happens with water and plants, it is easy to surmise this happens with everything.

Properties and Functions of the Evolution Charm

Property -3:

Property-3 creates two oppositely rotating vortexes or funnels of energy (one from heaven and one from earth) in equal, balanced, rhythm. The funnels of energy are drawn up into and co-mingle within your core essence, meeting at your heart chakra. This property gives you inspiration and deep desire to focus on and create things that can create “heaven on earth”² in practical, tangible ways. Consciously setting intention³ in conjunction with using/working/playing with the “funnel/vortex” dynamics of the Evolution Charm is essential to mastering and integrating Property-3 and its related functions.

Functions:

- a. Initiates the movement of two funnels/vortexes that integrate and infuse pure untainted energies from the earth and from the heavens. You can use these pure, raw energies to blast out (energetic power-clean) those things that prevent you from recognizing, learning, and applying the dynamics of resonance in your life.
- b. Vortexes created by the opposing “Greek key-like” labyrinths create strong, even influx of new information at an easily digestible rate. This rate will change/adjust over time as your capacity to purge the old and absorb new information changes/expands/contracts.
- c. This function enables you to eventually master creating things that give you and others tangible moments and experiences (small and large, but always profound) that immerse all involved in a sense of living “heaven on earth,” i.e., a state of Divine Balance.

Property -4:

Property-4 grounds and stabilizes you, and integrates a sense of security while you explore and apply the dynamics of resonance to your life.

Functions:

- a) The outer four corners on one side and the outer four corners on the other side of the two-sided Evolution Charm are soldered seamlessly together, providing double stability. The resulting 4² dynamics enable an even, measured expansion and grounded exploration. This in turn, allows easy, consistent integration of the new, and easy, consistent release of the old at a very even, steady, digestible pace. This function provides a sense of comfort and security that is especially good for those who currently don't have adequate support from family and friends.
- b) Enables you to interpret experiences as being free of duality-related conflicts. Instead, you'll begin to see things as being closer to or further from their innate state of divine balance.

Property -5:

Property-5 expedites your ability to shift your own vibrational patterns and resonance. This fills you with the inner encouragement and empowerment for living with a sense of freedom to “be” at ease with your current situations and lessons.

Property-5 Functions (2 functions):

- a. Expedites your ability to disconnect/dismantle your old vibrational patterns and networks.
- b. Expedites your ability to create and ground your new vibrational patterns and networks.

² The state of “Heaven on Earth” reflects the condition of Divine Balance of the form.

³ Learning to work Intention is one of the building blocks to working with vibrations, vibrational patterns and resonance. See Harmony Ring Properties and Functions for more information about the inter-related dynamics between intention and resonance.
