

Properties and Functions of the Mustard Seed Globe

The Design's Intention

The Mustard Seed Globe puts you in touch with all the possible realities you can create through the dynamics of focused faith.

It is a known phenomenon that when a focused center has nothing to hold it together, it collapses. Thus, the single band surrounding the suspended, seemingly floating mustard seed, serves to amplify, and to hold one's faith and focus. The clear globe symbolizes the endless possibilities and variables in creating your world. The sphere refracts, reflects, and is all embracing of endless choices and possibilities. Mustard seeds contain elemental energies to let people know that they always have choices. The black seed is for protection and grounding. It represents ancient wisdom of a more earth-related connection. It helps you be clear about "how you stand in this world." It is infinity - setting one's intention for higher purpose. The golden seed initiates more creative exploration and is good for helping to bring out one's artistic expression. It is freeing -and it frees creative blocks, bringing more fluidity, more expansion, and more dimensional astral connection to the wearer. It also is good for feeling safe during change.

Taken from an ancient metaphor conveying the power of personal faith, the mustard seed symbolizes the alignment between faith and focus. It is said that having faith the size of a mustard seed can move mountains.

"Do you want to be really happy? You can begin by appreciating who you are and what you've have. "Do you want to be really miserable? You can begin by being discontented. As Lao-tse wrote, 'A tree as big around as you can reach starts with a small seed; a thousand-mile journey starts with one step.' Wisdom, happiness, and courage are not waiting somewhere out beyond sight at the end of a straight line; they're part of a continuous cycle that begins right here." -- The Tao of Pooh, by Benjamin Hoff.

The skills required to maintain focus and faith are similar to what a surfer must do to ride waves. A surfer must have complete candor about, and total faith and focus on, 1) his/her physical-mental-emotional competence and limitations, and 2) the ability to interpret and adjust his/her response to the constantly shifting conditions of the wave. The greater and more controlled the focus is while interpreting and responding to the wave's condition, the more powerful and controlled is the surfer's faith is in his/her ability to ride the wave successfully.

The Design's Properties

The Mustard Seed Globe has four key properties that are all about consciously choosing your reality. Every day, every moment, you choose how you respond to your life. Are you victim or victor? Engaged or disengaged? Withholding or contributing? Free or trapped? Lovable or repellent? Every day, every moment, you are either redesigning or reinforcing how you expect the world to interact with you. Are you disconnecting and rewiring or connecting and reinforcing? Are you reacting on existing patterns or creating new patterns? An old saying goes, "Ignorance is doing the same thing over and over and expecting different results."

Wear the charm closest to the area most related to the issue at hand. Wear over the heart or on the left wrist to enhance receptivity and healing (of the heart and feminine aspects of your being). Wear on the right wrist to enhance letting go, opening up and receiving new aspects of reality. Wear close to your throat to communicate changes in your reality to others.

Property-1:

Property-1 has one function that supports your ability to disconnect from attitudes and behavior patterns, and belief systems that no longer serve your current life and purpose.

Function:

- a. This function prompts you to initiate conscious interruption of thought-reaction patterns -- the first step in changing your reality. What impedes and undermines you? What must you disconnect from and how? What will support you? What new connections do you need?

Fine jewelry designed to inspire your personal evolution.

All designs are based on sacred geometry and other energetically profound patterns that represent continual growth and celebrate all of life.

Available in sterling, 14KT & 18KT (yellow or white gold), & platinum.

Properties and Functions of the Mustard Seed Globe

Property-2:

Property-2's three functions enhance your ability to consciously create and integrate of new thought-reaction patterns and behaviors.

Functions:

- a. Shifts how you respond/react in the world. This, in turn, changes how the world responds/reacts to you, thus creating new patterns.
- b. Shifts how your biological and energetic body respond/react, which changes the state of your life vitality.
- c. Shifts the quality and strength of you heart-soul connections and their ability to work/play in tandem, as a tightly coupled unit designed to reflect your innate state of Divine Balance.

Property-3:

Property-3's four functions increase your ability to "re-wire" your life. That is, it enhances your flexibility and innovation in how you approach aspects of changing your life patterns and energetic dynamics. This property helps you shift your approach to focus on what you appreciate in life, rather than on what is less desirable.

Functions:

- a. Creates a strong, balanced anchor that aligns your heart-soul unit with those things that fill you with joyous involvement.
- b. Enhances your ability to see multiple, desirable options and strengthens your ability to dive into scenario planning and mapping to identify the most desirable, joy-full options.
- c. Enables you to experience obstacles as an indication that something is off-balance. Use the opportunity to make changes that will bring you closer to you own state of Divine Balance.
- d. Strengthens your expansion membrane by enhancing a type of dexterity needed to integrate your experiences with expansion-contraction-and timing dynamics used to build towards a state of Divine Balance.

Property-4:

Property-4 has three functions that reinforce your ability to integrate Properties 1-3 and deeply ground them in your core essence.

Functions:

- a. Strengthens your ability to consciously disconnect and make new connections in your neural network (reinforced by your thought-reaction patterns). This creates your ability to stay in balance while riding the energetic dynamics in life, much like a world class surfer rides a wave.
- b. Rebuilds and reinstates the quality of your life vitality.
- c. Enhances and maintains your ability to have good, open, and clear reception to external influences even when extremely focused. The other part of this is that you'll be able to efficiently and objectively discern if external influences will enhance or distract from that which you're focused on. This will enable you to release/pass through distractions with little to no wasted time or energy on your part.
