

Properties and Functions of the Tune-Up Charm

The Design's Intention

The Tune-Up Charm's intention is to connect you with synchronous expansion, timing, and personal growth. Personal growth induces clarity, self-knowledge, and divine knowledge during expansion, which leads to wisdom. The Tune-Up Charm helps you access and learn to recognize and master the interdependent energetic dynamics of expansion, contraction, and timing as tools to bring you closer to your state of Divine Balance.

"Phi is the basis for the Golden Section, Ratio or Mean. Golden Mean ratios¹ are symbolic of the Source, the god-ideal of all manifestation. Phi is the "constant of creation"; The Golden spiral/rectangle is a universal constant of design. The ratio, or proportion, determined by phi (1.618...) was known to the Greeks as the 'Golden Section' and to Renaissance artists as the 'Divine Proportion' Phi is also called the Golden Ratio and the Golden Mean. . . Phi appears throughout life and the universe. Some believe that it [represents] the most efficient outcome, the result of natural forces. Some believe it is a universal constant of design, the signature of God. Whatever you believe, the pervasive appearance of phi in all we see and experience creates a sense of balance, harmony and beauty in the design of all we find in nature. It should be no surprise then that mankind would use this same proportion found in nature to achieve balance, harmony and beauty in its own creations of art, architecture, colors, design, composition, space and even music." - From <http://goldennumber.net/>

Our perception of reality is determined by how we interpret our experiences. Our exploration of reality is meant to be active and ever expanding. All souls have gone through many iterations of experiencing and perceiving reality. Matter (i.e., a combination of your biological and energetic bodies) is a trapped form of light. Matter holds patterns of "crystallized" (static) perceptions of reality embedded in your biological and energetic bodies, thus creating blocks. The Tune-Up Charm helps "de-crystallize" your energy blocks by softening your resistance to the expansion-contraction-timing process. It increases your awareness of how to best nurture and cultivate your "expansion membrane" which, in turn, supports and enables you to expand in a gentle, organic manner that is natural to your current phase of life and purpose.

The Design's Properties

The Tune-Up Charm has five key properties that reconnect, rebuild, and strengthen the connection between your biological and energetic bodies. Once your biological and energetic body connections are back to functioning as a tightly coupled unit, the Tune-Up Charm synchronizes you to the naturally occurring universal timing and rhythm patterns of Divine Balance. The Tune-Up Charm harmonizes our inter-related purposes and pools our collective energies to help move civilization to a greater understanding and higher state of divine balance.

Property-1:

Property-1 has three functions that build, re-build, and strengthen the "bridge" and the "bridge connections" between your biological body and your energy body. This especially impacts your "expansion membrane." Everyone has an "expansion membrane" that is a living, rhythmic part of your energy bodies.

Functions:

- a. This function strengthens the "bridge" connection points. It helps create appropriately (self-adjusting) configured "bridge" connections. If the biological body systems are weak and the energy body systems are strong or vice versa, or if both sides are weak, the "bridge connection points" that join the two must be appropriately gauged. Otherwise, one side or the other or both sides will essentially "short out". If this occurs, the information flowing between the two will be inconsistent, incomplete, and intermittent at best.
- b. This function strengthens the bridge itself. It strengthens the conduit itself that relays information between the biological body and the energy body.

¹ This refers to a ratio or proportion defined by the number Phi (= 1.618033988749895...) It can be derived with a number of geometric constructions, each of which divides a line segment at the unique point where: the ratio of the whole line (A) to the large segment (B) is the same as the ratio of the large segment (B) to the small segment (C). In other words, A is to B as B is to C. This occurs only where A is 1.618... times B and B is 1.618... times C. See <http://goldennumber.net/> for more information (and from which this information was obtained).

Properties and Functions of the Tune-Up Charm

- c. This function keeps the “bridge” (a conduit) and the connection points between the biological body systems and the energy body systems clean, clear and open. This is so that information can flow both directions with complete integrity and without interference. The Tune-Up Charm’s design promotes and enhances the circulation and flow of information within and among the energetic body systems by “lubricating” the chakra system’s functions.

One of the chakra system’s functions is to create an energetic suction (from both the cosmos and from the earth) of energetic information, blending and circulating the information received. The chakra’s also absorb and integrate information that matches with your own energy patterns and can help clear out patterns that don’t match your resonance/vibration. A more flexible expansion ability opens doorways for you to receive new perceptions that shift your understanding of reality to a more an integrated whole.

Property-2:

Property-2 has three functions that link and amplify your energy-body’s capacity to more easily and clearly send and receive input from higher vibrational sources (other dimensions and realms). It increases your capacity to receive, utilize, store, transform, and transmit information of all kinds. When things move too fast or too slow, your ability to achieve and maintain Divine Balance is compromised. This property helps you recognize your own pace and timing via the lessons of contraction and expansion experiences.

Functions:

- a. The combined energetic qualities of the golden mean spiral on one side and the golden mean rectangle on the other advances, improves, and promotes a balanced, even rhythm of the circulation, processing, and flow of information in within you.
- b. This function helps you develop and fine-tune your timing on what information you access and what you ultimately do with it in relation to your current phase of life and purpose.
- c. This function enables/enhances your ability to know when to release old information (e.g., old belief systems) that have crystallized, and it loosens your grip (these crystallized blocks) through the notion of sound (the chimes). The chimes represent the natural rhythm and steps of ascension and open up sensory channels to create energetic portals. Sound is a tool for transformation. It can penetrate any substance, move molecules, and rearrange realities. This helps your learn how to modulate frequency (and timing) through the subtlest of sounds; e.g., what is the sound of grass growing?

The three chimes in the Tune-Up Charm are the exact lengths of the three longest sections of the Golden Rectangle in the Tune-Up Charm. The three chimes also represent a variety of ever repeating cycles, such as:

- wholeness, synthesis, completion
- creating, transforming, maintaining
- structure, order, function
- past, present, future
- expansion, contraction, timing

Properties and Functions of the Tune-Up Charm

Property-3:

Property-3 has four functions that help you re-establish your timing, harmony, and rhythm patterns to synchronize you with other interrelated people, planetary, and universal timing, harmony, and rhythm patterns. Re-establishing your timing patterns is needed in order to bring your inner light's voice into resonance and into harmony with others.

"When an orchestra is first tuning itself, there is a cacophony of dissonant sounds. So it is with us as we begin to tune and align ourselves with our soul resonance and the resonance of Oneness. If we allow ourselves to become distracted by the others' tuning process and sounds, we will not be able to focus on and clearly hear our own "note" and "tones.". It is our joy and passion that is absolutely essential to facilitating this process of tuning. . . The one in tune hits a note and all other [musicians] use that as a source to get [their instruments] in tune. [Our note] responds or emits a certain tone. If the instruments used are all in tune, the vibrations emitted are harmonious. . . . So it is with us. [Harmony] is the perfect resonance [of Divine Balance] . . . radiating vibrations . . . that we experience as peace, joy, and unconditional love." – Kathleen Dayvolt

Functions:

- a. Signals that you are ready to tune up your vibrational fingerprint with the resonance of the Aquarian Dynamics.
- b. Harmonizes your purpose with the collective pool that will ultimately move humanity to a higher state of Divine Balance aligned with the Aquarian purpose and intention.
- c. Reconnects you in tangible, noticeable ways to others' timing such that you realize that we are all in resonant influence with one another and energetically interdependent.
- d. Accelerates synchronous events and connections in your everyday life. When timing accelerates and you find your context and logic no longer apply, you will feel very unstable. The trick of continuing and not "freezing" is to start with the assumption that new perceptions of reality will be outside the context of your current experiences and your past context and logic. The charm will help you come to know the expansion-contraction-timing patterns related to that which moves you closer to your state of Divine Balance.

Property-4:

Property-4's two functions amplify timing patterns in your life so that you are more aware of them. Timing is a dramatic and integral partner in evolution. The Charm helps you (learn to) recognize the active dynamics of timing within the state of your core resonance. The Charm strengthens your ability to easily and naturally replace your old patterns with new patterns that better serve you and that are more appropriate (i.e. resonate with) the times, much like a snake outgrowing its skin.

The Charm enhances your active recognition of and participation in "timing" and synchronicity as part of your expansion process. It is like a tuning fork for your sense of timing, which in turn accelerates synchronous events and connections, (i.e., an accelerator that tunes and aligns you with the aspects of universal timing that vibrates with your state of resonance). As your resonance/vibrational patterns become more finely "tuned," your ability to read the timing of others who have similar timing patterns is heightened. This may open doors to meeting and developing relationships with an entirely new set of friends, i.e., a new "tribe" who are a perfect foundation and mutually supportive of the life purpose of all involved. This refines the skill of manifesting maximum results with minimum effort.

Functions:

- a. Amplifies those things causing discord and imbalance so that you are motivated to make clear, easy adjustments to your circumstances.
- b. Amplifies those things that "strike a chord" within you no matter how subtle. Sound can be as subtle as falling snow or plants growing. These subtle reminders compel you to connect and take action to investigate whenever something feels right to you, no matter how illogical it seems to your current context and belief systems.

Properties and Functions of the Tune-Up Charm

Property-5:

Property-5 has five functions that enhance your ability to clearly see, understand, and master your own timing, harmony, and rhythm patterns and to understand how to use these new skills to contribute to the good of all. Resonance is the energetic ecosystem of which we are all a part. One key aspect of the universal shift underway relates to the ego's sense of priority and importance. Ego's relationship to resonance will be one of the biggest obstacles and challenges when people learn to integrate with resonance outside of their own state of resonance. This is especially true of those who have established their identity on being "masters, teachers and healers" and leaders in new thought paradigms. This is because fully integrated resonance is like air current or water flowing. There is no perceptible difference between particles of air or water as it moves and flows. This shift in perception of how energy moves to understanding the dynamics of resonance will cause people to feel like as if they will lose their identity. It moves them to an acknowledgement of their unique gifts and distinguishing contributions when they completely let go and "flow" with "the all." What each of us must come to understand is that it is specifically our unique gifts that contribute to the quality of the resonance of "the all." Each person has his or her own divine role that either enhances or detracts from the ensemble's collective state of Divine Balance. The most uplifting, revitalizing, and inspiring music you'll witness is a perfect blend of composition, musicianship, rhythm, and timing.

Functions:

- a. Accesses and connects you - with absolute certainty - to core ways to contribute to the state of Divine Balance of all. In the analogy of a band, this is akin to deciding to participate in a band.
- b. Helps you understand how and where you can make key impacts. Using the band analogy, this is akin to deciding what instrument, style of music, and type of ensemble you want to participate in.
- c. Helps you understand the role you'll play in making your contribution. As in a band analogy, will you be a soloist? The conductor? Part of the rhythm section? Are you a composer? Are you a roady? A grip?
- d. This helps you clarify and connect with those who will be the best collaborative partners. As in a band analogy, there are many, many bands, but only a handful receives worldwide recognition, and even fewer receive a Grammy for their efforts. But always remember, there are also local musicians that engage, excite, and uplift an entire event and an entire community.
- e. Finally, property helps you connect to where, geographically, you can make contributions most aligned with your current state of resonance and Divine Balance.
